

DJ BIANCA PORO

BIOGRAPHY

Bianca PoRo was born to a Mexican mother and an Austrian father in Vienna in 1988. Raised in a musical environment, she learned how to play musical instruments at her childhood.

PoRo worked in a number of roles before her music career but as she has always been fascinated by the music scene she got involved in it very quickly. Because of her enthusiasm and her talent she was supported by various colleagues and club managers and so she got the opportunity to prove her sense of music to the public.

Very soon she became the resident DJ of some of the most famous locations in the heart of Vienna. She also played in various popular locations in Austria, Egypt, Switzerland, Serbia and Spain. Over the time she became an essential element of the Austrian house music scene.

PoRo also played for famous labels like Brandnite TV, Musical Collective & Sweet Pacha Barcelona.

And even though House Music is not „the conventional” radio music in Austria, PoRo managed to put on some massive sounds playing her set Live at FM4’s „Digital Konfusion Radioshow“ and „La Boum de Luxe“.

In 2020 one of her House mixes were published at Ibiza Global Radio - the pioneer Ibiza’s electronic music radio station broadcasting live 24/7 from Ibiza to the world.

Bianca was one of only a few official endorsers of the most famous DJ-equipment stores in Austria, friendlyhouse.at and has cooperations with Austrian Audio, a new audio company dealing with research & development of acoustic products, mainly microphones and headphones, but also highly sophisticated measurement systems and ODM developments. That’s why she is always up to date when it comes to new technologies.

Being a productive member of the DJ scene she also completed successfully the official Pioneer DJ Academy (Plastic Academia) in July 2018 in Barcelona to have the latest knowledge for existing and upcoming Pioneer gear.
